

Questions from the Chat File on June 15, 2023

18:58:56 From Rene Romo to Everyone:

What do you see as the primary sources of funding to carry out the projects or goals established by the regional water planning efforts?

19:09:37 From Cirrelda Snider-Bryan to Everyone:

Does anyone know when the ISC will start defining the regions?

19:10:05 From Ella Joan Fenoglio to Everyone:

How quickly will these 5 steps be in full operation?

19:14:21 From Cirrelda Snider-Bryan to Everyone:

Will "process" also incorporate not just "State" agencies, but municipal agencies such as ABCWUA and NMAA?

19:19:34 From Margaret Bell to Everyone:

Did the ISC receive funding for additional staffing to implement this new law?

19:24:29 From kathy freas to Everyone:

MORE specifically When and with whom do we get involved with developing rules and guidelines development

19:27:03 From Mark Moll to Everyone:

What is the relationship of the OSE to these processes??

19:29:21 From Cirrelda Snider-Bryan to Everyone:

So funding comes from State of NM — but maybe also from Fed?

19:31:26 From Rachel Conn to Everyone:

Funding for the plan development needs to come from the state. Funding to implement the plan recommendations (specific projects identified in the plans) could come from many sources of funding including federal and state funds.

19:49:01 From Laurie McCann to Everyone:

What is needed for this program to succeed? Money, public understanding and engagement, more youth and mid-life people able to participate (timing/jobs/families)

19:50:33 From Marcia Fernández to Everyone:

If you want to talk with farmers maybe do it during non growing times (winter?)

19:50:51 From Rachel Swanteson-Franz (She/Her) to Everyone:

Reacted to "If you want to talk ..." with

19:51:26 From Cirrelda Snider-Bryan to Everyone:

Key ideas+ using the water groups already established in regions. Providing education so that public with important perspective can be helped to communicate their concerns. Larger cities need to be held accountable.

19:52:28 From Cirrelda Snider-Bryan to Everyone:

Yay Lynn - ways to use less water~

19:52:36 From Rachel Conn to Everyone:

I think we need to go to people where they are and not expect people to come to another meeting. So we need to go to local groups, churches, NGOs, etc.

19:53:39 From Elaine Hebard to Everyone:

Our group discussed need to ensure planning groups are representative.